

Job Announcement Bi-lingual Mental Health Therapist

Bi-lingual Mental Health Therapist: Mentis, a private non-profit agency, is looking to hire a bi-lingual (Spanish speaking) mental health therapist. This position involves providing Mental Health treatment services at our office as well as in the community to mainly Spanish speakers who are primarily low-income (insured as well as uninsured) and coping with multiple and complex psychosocial stressors. The therapist will work with both adults and seniors.

The position requires a master's degree or clinical license in Social Work, Counseling, or Psychology. All applicants must be bi-lingual Spanish. The agency offers supervision for interns that are seeking clinical hours toward licensure. The position is 32-40 hours per week with a very competitive salary and excellent benefits (sick, vacation, dental, medical and retirement). It is possible to apply for this position on a part-time, hourly basis if that is preferable. This job is a good opportunity for clinical growth in a supportive environment with a great team.
